

SPELLOGRAPHY

Book C, Unit 15

Supplemental Activities

Print out the student pages for these supplemental activities, as needed, to reinforce the following Spellography concepts:

Lesson 1.8 (page 2)

Old English Compounds with air

Practice building words with the base word air.

Lesson 2.2 (page 3)

What's That Sound?

Discern possible dialects with the vowel-r combinations for /ā//r/.

Lesson 4.7 (page 4)

All Together

Provide more practice with -ar, -er, and -or suffixes.

OPTIONAL: Use this supplemental activity following 1.8 "Wares for Sale" in Unit 15 for practice building words with the base word air.

Old English Compounds with air

- Let’s finish our tour of Old English word building by building compound words using the base word air. Air it out!

air
airman	airplay
airway	airport
airbus	airfoil
airplane	airmail
airtime	airtight
aircraft	airspeed
air show	airwave
airbag	aircraft
airline	midair ...
airhead
airdrop ...

OPTIONAL: Use this supplemental activity following the "Air We R" instructional text in Lesson 2 to discern possible variations in dialects with the vowel-r combinations for /ā//r/.

What's That Sound?

- With your teacher or a partner, read the following words out loud.
- How do you say the vowel-r combination in each word? Are the sounds different or the same to you?

marry / merry

parrot / pair it

paradise / pair o' dice

very / vary

OPTIONAL: Use this supplemental activity following 4.7 "Adjective Avenue" in Unit 15 for more practice with -ar, -er, and -or suffixes.

All Together

- Underline or highlight the -ar, -er, and -or suffixes in the words below.
- Then fill in the usage and meaning chart by sorting the words. (Don't write in the shaded boxes.)

scannerer

beggarar

bloggerer

collectoror

triangularar

processoror

fairerer

	Noun		Adjective
	Someone who	Something that	Having to do with	More than
er	blogger	scanner		fairer
or	collector	processor
ar	beggar		triangular	